

Who we serve: Sun Valley youth and families living in low income housing without a safety net. They are often refugees, trauma survivors, and/or domestic violence survivors.

START:

Parent or guardian enrolls child(ren) in the center

Team spends time with child to provide:

Safety

Safe trusted adult

Love

Place of unconditional inclusion and acceptance

Empowerment

Self regulation and mindfulness tools

Commitment

Standing in the gap to close the gap

Team spends time with family in activities like:

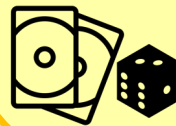

Movie nights

Camping Trip

Game nights

Family BBQ

We Also Provide:

- A safe space
- Engagement programming
- Tutoring
- Meals
- Recreation
- New and unique experiences to give options for future
- Skills and tools to explore strengths and passions
- System navigation and connections to resources
- Support and advocacy for everyday needs

So that youth and families:

Are able to live an independent life

Have a realistic sense of future possibilities and are motivated to pursue them

Have the confidence to use their voice effectively

Can advocate for the needs of their family

Have a sense of community

Have increased school attendance and engagement

Impact:

Sun Valley youth and families create sustainable life changes that allow them to reach their greatest potential.